

Proclamation

Child Abuse Prevention Month

April 12, 2022

WHEREAS, all children are vital to our county's future success, prosperity, and quality of life, they are also the most vulnerable members of our society; and

WHEREAS, all children deserve to have the safe, stable, nurturing homes and communities they need to foster their healthy growth and development; and

WHEREAS, preventing child abuse and neglect strengthens families and is a community responsibility that affects both the current and future quality of life of a community; and

WHEREAS, communities that promote family functioning and resiliency, social support systems, concrete resources, nurturing and attachment, and knowledge of parenting and child development, all are known protective factors, will help to ensure that all children grow to their full potential; and

WHEREAS, effective child abuse prevention strategies succeed because of partnerships created among individuals and families, human service agencies, schools, faith communities, health care providers, civic organizations, law enforcement agencies, and the business community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Michelle Morgan, Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Carroll County, do hereby proclaim April, 2022 as Child Abuse Prevention Month and commend observance and participation in efforts to support families to all Carroll County citizens.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand on this 12th day of April of the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-two.

Michelle Morgan
