

Summary of Public Open House

The county had an excellent turnout (63 people signed in) for the first Public Hearing of the Comprehensive Plan Update.

Character Areas

Regarding the proposed, Character Areas Map, the county asked the following questions.

Q: “Overall, do you have a favorable view of the county’s proposed character areas?”

Yes	53.33%
Maybe, with changes	46.67%
No	0%

Q: Will this map help the county guide future development?

Yes	53.33%
Maybe, with changes	46.67%
No	0%

Q: How would you rate your level of satisfaction with the county’s character areas map?

Highly Satisfied	6.67%
Satisfied	46.67%
Neutral	26.67%
Unsatisfied	20.00%
Highly Unsatisfied	0.00%

Other comments submitted were as follows:

In particular, the designation of “rural countryside” and the community crossroads were noted favorably on the comment cards. Future additions that residents would like the county to consider are Center Point, Victory, and Farmers’ High.

Participation Plan

In terms of Public Participation, the county asked the following:

Q: Overall, do you have a favorable opinion of the county’s proposed participation program?

Yes	52.63%
Maybe	42.11%
No	5.26%

Q: Will this plan achieve sufficient public input?

Yes	42.11%
Maybe	47.37%
No	5.26%
No Answer	5.26%

Q: How would you rate your level of satisfaction with the county's participation program?

Highly Satisfied	15.79%
Satisfied	31.58%
Neutral	42.11%
Unsatisfied	5.26%
Highly Unsatisfied	5.26%

Other comments were as follows: more web-based interaction, media coverage and publicity
