

Proclamation

September 6, 2022

WHEREAS the University of West Georgia (UWG) and Carroll County share a commitment to community building and placemaking to create mutually beneficial opportunities for its citizenry; and

WHEREAS UWG and Carroll County work hand in hand to nurture a positive university environment; and

WHEREAS UWG and Carroll County are committed to nurturing a positive and collaborative relationship with one another; and

WHEREAS UWG and Carroll County collaborate to promote programs and events that benefit the West Georgia community; and

WHEREAS UWG and Carroll County have collaborated on several key development projects; and

WHEREAS UWG provides an integral economic impact to the West Georgia community, totaling contributing more than $626.7 million to the region's economy during the state's 2021 fiscal year; and

WHEREAS UWG students participate in jobs and internships with many Carroll County businesses and provide a pool of student talent for our local economy; and

WHEREAS UWG participates in key partnerships with county businesses including, Southwire, Tanner Health System, and SMI.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Michelle Morgan, Chairman of the Carroll County Board of Commissioners, hereby officially recognize the 22nd of October, 2022 as

“UWG Day“

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of Carroll County, Georgia, to be affixed to this Proclamation on this 6th day of September, 2022.

Michelle Morgan

Michelle Morgan, Chairman